

THREE HOUSES ARE RAVAGED BY FIRE

Kenilworth Homes Are Destroyed by Flames Fanned by Wind—Damage $8,000.

Damage estimated today at $8,000 was done by a fire which yesterday afternoon destroyed three frame dwellings at Kenilworth, near the corner of Kenilworth and W. F. Zirkle, on the corner, and fanned by a strong wind, spread to the two adjoining houses, both owned by H. N. Tappin, of the Southern building.

One of Mr. Tappin's house was vacant, but the other was occupied by Charles E. Morgan, whose household effects were saved. The three houses were valued at about $2,000 each, while furniture belonging to Zirkle, which was destroyed was valued at $3,000. Insurance covers the loss.

The fire caused much excitement in the little suburb, as it was feared for a time that the wind would cause the blaze to spread to other buildings. The fire early this morning did $15,000 damage to the home of James H. Willis, of 1235 First street southwest. The cause of the blaze was not determined.

An overheated stove was responsible for a small blaze in a rear room of the first floor of the home of Samuel Landis, 2100 Pennsylvania avenue northwest. A lighted match dropped on the floor caused a fire which did $25 damage to a second-floor room of the home of Squire Finkley, 1618 street southeast. The number of small blazes in different sections of the District kept the firemen busy last evening. Most of the fires were caused by overheated chimneys.

POSTMASTERS' JOBS UP TO BURLESON

Thousands of Applications Made to New Department Head
Under New Regime.

The thousands of applications for jobs as postmaster, the most numerous and perplexing of patronage problems, will be handled primarily by Postmaster General Burleson.

He was asked on determining the Cabinet meeting yesterday if these matters would be first placed in his hands, and replied that he thought so.

This is in line with the announced Wilson policy of dealing with appointments through department heads, but is especially significant because it shifts an entirely new task to the postmaster general, and can get their cases before him easily.

Thousands of Southern postmasters of the first, second, third and fourth classes are to be appointed within the next few weeks. Consequently the offices of the new Postmaster General are being besieged by officers, by Senators and Congressmen and others who have friends and constituents to care for.

Two of the Assistant Postmasters General are to be nominated by the President this afternoon. It is understood that he will be successors to Secretary of the South Carolina, who was formerly clerk of the Ways and Means Committee. James S. Britt, third assistant, was succeeded by James I. Blakely.

Many Want to Become Mt. Rainier's Postmaster

Nearly a dozen applicants made their appearance today at the Civil Service Commission offices to take the test for position of postmaster at Mt. Rainier. The position is to be given to the applicant showing the highest efficiency under the rules of the Civil Service Commission, under the executive order of the President placing fourth-class postmaster positions paying less than $600 under the civil service.

The examination includes mental and efficiency tests. The applicant must live in the locality and must show knowledge of conditions there. He will be required to show some knowledge of the manner in which service is to be rendered, and submit a plan of the building where the business is to be conducted. There are no restrictions of age and the position is open to all applicants twenty-one years old or over. According to officials of the service, it will probably be a month before selection of the official is made.

WILSON GIRLS STIR CROWD AT THEATER

They Enter Unannounced and Soon Are Center of All Eyes
at the Columbia.

The democratic ways of the President's family have already begun to "fuss up" Washington people who are accustomed to arranging special homages for the President and his family.

Had it not been for the coat of arms of the United States on the big automobile which landed the three daughters of the President and Mrs. Wilson at the Columbia Theatre yesterday afternoon to hear the Russian pianist, Godowsky, folks would yet be unaware of their presence there. They arrived early, and, being strangers to the men about the theater, including the ushers, were shown in through the P street entrance, instead of the side entrance through which the President and his family always pass.

After the party were "discovered" consternation reigned about the theater and there was great scurrying to do them honor as they left.

In the box were Miss Margaret Wilson, wearing a dark blue costume, with a brown sash, and Miss Jessie Wilson, in a charming dress of black and white lace and black satin over which she wore a long coat. Miss Jessie Wilson was decidedly picturesque in a big white felt hat worn with her black costume, which had for a trimming white coque and black, and the trim underlined with black.

The girls all wore fur coats which they left in the open automobile in which they arrived at the theater. It was their first appearance in public.
